APPENDIX: *The Start of a Sample Role-Play

SS99: Blue Fox 1, Blue Fox 1 (BF1). This is Spaghetti Sauce 99 (SS99). Come in. Over.

BF1: 10-4. This is Blue Fox 1. Go head. Over.

SS99: Affirmative. The target has been spotted. T. Swift is on the move and headed towards the northeast corner of McDonald's. Over.

BF1: I'm not seeing the target T. Swift. In the northeast corner I only see a woman dressed in a purple jumpsuit, black high heels, and a scarf, with black hair. Over.

SS99: Blue Fox 1—that is T. Swift!! She is undercover. Remember what General Goober said before we left station 56? He said that T. Swift has the ability to change her identity quickly, in a matter of minutes. Over.

BF1: 10-4. I remember now. Yes, it must be her. Have you identified the location of the banana? Over.

SS99: Affirmative. The banana is in her left hand. It appears to be undamaged. Over.

BF1: 10-4. Spaghetti Sauce 99, I suggest you make a move and enter at the southeast entrance of McDonald's. Make your way to the northeast corner quickly and approach T. Swift. Ask her if you can borrow her banana. Over.

SS99: Negative. Borrow her banana?!? How can I borrow someone's banana? Over.

BF99: Well, somehow we need to get that banana! The bomb has been placed inside the center of the banana. Do whatever you have to do to get it. Over.
