

TESOL 2010 BOSTON CONVENTION AND EXHIBIT EXHIBITOR TECHNOLOGY PAVILION

New this year, TESOL will offer Exhibitors a space to present and demonstrate products and services that highlight new technology and innovation. The new Technology Pavilion is a 50' x 50' private presentation area in Exhibit Hall A at the Boston Convention & Exhibition Center (BCEC). Take advantage of this value-added forum to engage attendees in hands-on informational product demonstrations. A 45-minute session is only $500. Reserve your session by January 15, 2010, and get your presentation listed in the Convention Program Book!

The room may be used for:

- Technology product presentations and demonstrations open to all attendees
- Technology seminars by invitation
- Instructional technology forums

The Technology Pavilion seats 50 people at 10 round tables with 5 computer stations each. The computers will have Internet access. The presenter will have a stage, podium, microphone, Internet, LCD, and screen. Other A/V equipment can be rented through Projection A/V.

Program presenters, titles and times will be displayed on the entry unit and exhibit hall signage.

All sessions reserved by January 15, 2010 will be printed with presenter, title, 25 word description and times in the TESOL 2010 Convention & Exhibit Program Book on the Exhibitor Technology Pavilion page. There will also be a listing of Exhibitor Technology Pavilion presenters and times posted on the TESOL website attendee page.
