

Update on TESOL Executive Director Search, November 2016

The Executive Director Search Task Force is pleased to report that the search continues along the timeline the Board and task force approved and we are on track to select a new Executive Director in Spring 2017. Interest from prospective candidates has been strong and we are pleased with the level of interest.

The position description is available on the TESOL website. The deadline for applications is 31 December 2016.

TESOL International Association has retained Vetted Solutions, a search firm specialized in nonprofit associations, to assist with the search for a new Executive Director.

The members of the Executive Director Search Task Force are

- President-Elect Ester de Jong, Professor and Director School of Teaching and Learning, University of Florida (Chair)
- Deena Boraie, Professor of Practice and Dean, School of Continuing Education, the American University in Cairo and the 2013-14 President of TESOL International Association
- Elisabeth Chan, Assistant Professor, ESL, Northern Virginia Community College - Alexandria Campus
- Reza Mazloom-Farzaghy, Accreditation Services Manager TESL Ontario and ESL Instructor at Seneca College
- Rosemary Orlando, Professor, Southern New Hampshire University

At its October meeting, the Board of Directors met with Vetted Solutions President Jim Zaniello and was briefed on the search process. The deadline for submitting applications for the position is 31 December 2016.

Please contact Jim Zaniello with any questions you may have.