Not good
I just got my delivery...and it's disappointing. I can't eat it and I am going to end up throwing it out. The salmon was really poor quality...and it smells funny. I'm disappointed because now I have no dinner.

We have been patrons of Aki for a long time. They used to have great quality Sushi, Udon, and rolls. They must have changed ownership recently. We ordered takeout and the food was not edible at all! After a few bites we threw everything out. The fish was not fresh. We will not order here again.

Consistent and Good!

The fish here is fresh and the service is dependable. They have a good lunch special and their bento boxes are always my first thought for comfort food.

I ordered the "Rainbow Roll" and it was basically a big ball of rice stuffed with some kind of artificial crab and avocado, layered on top was avocado and the smallest piece of fish you can imagine. When I called to complain I was told "fish is expensive" and "Would you like more? You can pay more!" Seriously, after paying 14 bucks for a small rice/avocado ball I'm getting a lesson on fish being expensive!

Not Impressed

I had lunch at Aki and was not impressed. The fish was not fresh and there was not enough of it in the rolls. I was not satisfied with the quality of the fish or the structure of the rolls. Service was adequate, but in this neighbourhood there are other great sushi places just up the block.

Absolutely fresh and delicious, and so fast! I guess it's worth noting that I only live like 4 short blocks away, so your results may vary, but I will be ordering my sushi here from now on!

Really good

I eat here with my young son every week and have been doing so for several years. The food is always quite good and the folks who manage it have a very friendly staff. They often have something called "live scallop" which is fantastic. Desert is very well priced (for example, some places charge $6-8 for ice cream; it's only $3.50 here). I highly recommend this place.

It's 8:55 p.m., I placed my order at 7:35 pm. It has yet to arrive. This isn't the first time this has happened to me with this restaurant, but this has been the worse by far. They called me at 8:16 pm, about 40 minutes after I ordered, to tell me that they were out of tempura ice cream. They should've been knocking on my door by then. When I asked when they were going to deliver, he said about 10 to 15 minutes. I called at 8:50pm, and he told me that he did not know where his delivery person was. Hmm ... The food was ok, but it's not worth the wait and hassle and poor service.

Really good

We go as a family every Thursday and the food is great with good service and environment (a big plus: game for the kids).

You can do better

I ordered delivery from here and was disappointed. It took 40 minutes, and I didn't order a huge amount. The sushi was about average, nothing spectacular. The soup was just OK and the salad tasted like it was getting old. It wasn't terrible, but 40 minutes for delivery is not OK with me. Try somewhere else.

They delivered like lightning but the fish wasn't very fresh. To make it even worse they gave me only enough soy sauce and wasabi to eat half my food. I actually had to try using English mustard as a substitute, can you imagine! After this experience I was actually afraid to order sushi from any place again.
