TESOL Congratulates 2019 Research Mini-Grant Recipients

12 November 2019 (Alexandria, VA) – Each year, the TESOL Research Professional Council awards up to US$2,500 per recipient to support research projects that are aligned with the TESOL Research Agenda. TESOL congratulates the following recipients of the 2019 Research Mini-Grants:

Debby J. Adams, University of Kansas, United States
Kerry Soo Von Esch, Seattle University, United States
Ileana Hilton, Northcentral University, United States

The recipients will present their preliminary research at the TESOL International Convention & English Language Expo in Denver, Colorado, USA, 31 March–3 April 2020, during the TESOL Research Agenda Fair.

For more information about the recipients and their research, please visit the TESOL website. For more information about the grants, please read the 2019 Call for TESOL Research Mini-Grant Proposals. The next call for TESOL Research Mini-Grant proposals will be available in May 2020.

About TESOL International Association
TESOL International Association is the trusted global authority for knowledge and expertise in English language teaching. A professional community of more than 10,000 educators representing over 150 countries, TESOL fosters the exchange of ideas to advance the expertise of those teaching English while supporting equity, diversity, and multilingualism. For over 50 years, TESOL has strived to advance its mission with programs, publications, and services to expand its global presence and connectivity throughout the field, share its knowledge and expertise, and amplify its voice through advocacy. For more information, please visit www.tesol.org.