

Causatives: One Word Makes a Difference

Robyn Brinks Lockwood

APPENDIX: Sample Sentence Strips

Occupation

Descriptor

The judge	guilty defendants (to) pay for their crime.
The police officer	fast drivers (to) slow down.
The teacher	students (to) include secondary sources.
The doctor	patients (to) eat heart-healthy food.
The dentist	patients (to) brush their teeth after every meal.
The artist	his/her spouse (to) pose for a painting.
The manager	his/her employees (to) turn in a weekly report.
The engineer	the interns to (to) work on the small projects.
The IT specialist	people (to) contact them for help.
The secretary	friends (to) plan the company holiday party.
The banker	customers (to) check their savings accounts.
The plumber	customers (to) check their drains.

Make, Have/Has, Get Strips

makes	makes	makes	makes has	has	has	has
gets	gets	gets	gets