

Two Election Games for 2020!

Both Cast Your Vote and Win the White House have Extension Packs with lots of activities and ELL Supports.

Let's watch a trailer.

What's in Win the White House?

- Issues related to the 2020 election (complete guide available in resources)
- Students learn how to campaign by:
 - Creating a slogan
 - Engaging the public
 - How to secure funding
 - Media and news reports
 - Polling
 - Electoral Votes
- Students also learn:
 - How difficult it is to win an election
 - Campaign strategy
 - How long and expensive the campaign process is

Writing and Speaking

Persuasive Writing:

Create 1 positive and 1 negative campaign ad for your candidate.

Act it out!

Record a video of your ad for oral practice.

Chat Box

1. What other “election-themed” writing activities could you plan for your students?
2. What listening and speaking activities could you plan for your students?

 LESSON PLAN

Do I Have a Right? Extension Pack

Make your students' gameplay more meaningful by using our activity and assessment set designed specifically for Do I Have a Right?. We included tips and practice that help make differentiated instruction a breeze. And, best of all, new instructional scaffolds now mean this lesson is adaptable for a wide range of learners!

Do I Have a Right? and its Extension Pack are correlated according to WIDA's methodology using the WIDA PRIME V2 Inventory. To see how these materials best meet your ELL students' needs, click here. (Note: PRIME stands for Protocol for Review of Instructional Materials for ELLs.)
