

Call for Submissions

TESOL's 6 Principles for Exemplary Teaching of English Learners, Second Edition

Are you using TESOL's 6 Principles for Exemplary Teaching of English Learners® in your elementary or secondary classrooms? Tell us about your work. We'd love to hear from you! We are preparing the second edition of The 6 Principles for Exemplary Teaching of English Learners: Grades K–12 and would like to add vignettes and case studies about the implementation of The 6 Principles. Have you designed districtwide or schoolwide professional development using The 6 Principles? Are you teaching with The 6 Principles and have a lesson or two to share in the new edition? Are you an educator outside the classroom who has adjusted policies or procedures with The 6 Principles in mind?

If so, by 15 July 2023, please email The 6 Principles Series Editor Deborah Short (deborah.short@comcast.net) a 100–150-word description of your work with The 6 Principles with the subject line: “6Ps Submission”. Please include the following:

- Your contact information, including how to contact you in July and August 2023
- Your teaching context and location
- The grade/school level of your students and proficiency level, if relevant
- [If available] A sample lesson plan, professional development agenda, or other artifact

Your story and materials may be used in the new edition or on an expanded version of The 6 Principles website. If your work is selected, you will receive a free e-book of The 6 Principles for Exemplary Teaching of English Learners: Grades K–12, Second Edition.

We will only be able to contact those applicants whose descriptions best suit our requirements.

We thank you in advance for helping us create a vibrant, updated, and useful book.
