

Comparatives and Superlatives Survey

Maggie Burnett

APPENDIX: Comparatives and Superlatives Survey Worksheet

Comparatives & Superlatives Survey

Name _____

Part 1 directions: Answer the questions about yourself in the first column using a number only. Then ask your group members the questions and write their names and answers using the number they say.

On a scale from 1–10: [not at all] 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 [extremely]

Group (A, B, C, D)	Your answer	Classmate:	Classmate:	Classmate:	Classmate:
1. How busy are you?
2. How tired are you?
3. How lazy are you?
4. How homesick are you?
5. How strong are you?
6. How hungry are you?

Comparatives and Superlatives Survey

Part 2 directions: Now, take the information from the survey and write comparative and superlative sentences. Write at least two comparative sentences and two superlative sentences. When you are finished, share them with your group members.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Part 3 directions: Find a partner from a different group. Ask them at least two questions using comparatives and superlatives. For example, "Who is the hungriest person in your group?" or "Is Gina more excited than Jorge?" When you answer, use complete sentences. You don't need to write your questions or answers; just practice speaking.