Roles and Responsibilities

The Proposal Submitter

The proposal submitter is responsible for notifying all other presenters of communication from TESOL regarding the proposal. TESOL will only notify the proposal submitter of the proposal status.

Proposal submitter may be

- the lead presenter of the session
- the presenter/panelist of the session
- the mediator of a panel discussion.
- a contact person who acts as the contact but will not be presenting.

The Presenters/Contacts Section

Use this page to add all presenters/panelists for the session. You can select from the following roles:

- Contact Person Only
- Lead Presenter
- Presenter
- Mediator for a Panel Discussion
- Panelist on a Panel Discussion

Your submission will need to have at least one lead presenter/panelist; otherwise, you will not be able to complete the submission.

Maximum Number of Accepted Presentation as Lead Presenter

There is no limit on how many proposals you submit but if the proposals are accepted, individual cannot appear in TESOL convention program as:

- lead presenter in more than 2 sessions, and/or
- presenter/panelist in more than 3 sessions.

This includes both adjudicated and non-adjudicated sessions.

A reminder of the responsibilities of all presenters, moderators, and panelists

If your proposal is accepted, you agree to

- refrain from changing the conceptual content of the session as submitted in the session title, abstract, and description.
- engage the audience during the presentation, rather than reading a script.
- register for the convention. Please note that TESOL does not reimburse expenses, including for registration, travel, lodging, meals, and audiovisual equipment. Please see the webpage for available grants.

For panels, you agree that

- all panelists have been contacted and agreed to participate prior to submission of the proposal.
- if a member of the panel is unable to attend the convention, you will find another panelist who will address the same topic or issue.
