

Traveling Around the World With Present Perfect Tense

---

Margarita Mitevaska

APPENDIX A: *Sample Class Handout

Interview

Directions: With a partner, take turns interviewing each other about your traveling experiences. Use the questions below, but also feel free to add other questions that interest you. Take notes.

When you are finished, prepare to tell the class the most interesting things you learned about your partner.

Examples

1. Do you enjoy traveling? How many different countries have you visited?
2. What is the strangest experience you have had in any of those countries?
3. What is the strangest food you have ever eaten? Did you like it?
4. Have you lived and/or worked in another country before? Which country? Why that country?
5. What country would you like to visit next? Why?

My Notes

APPENDIX B: *Sample Homework Handout

Interview

Directions: Now use the questions to interview an American outside of class. Feel free to add follow-up questions that interest you. Take notes.

When you are finished, prepare to tell the class about the person you interviewed in a 2- to 3-minute informal speech. You may use your notes as guidelines, but do not read them!

Afterward, write a short report about your interview and findings (one or two paragraphs).

1. Do you enjoy traveling? How many different countries have you visited?

Follow-up question:

My notes:

2. What is the strangest experience you have had in any of those countries?

Follow-up question:

My notes:

Traveling Around the World With Present Perfect Tense

3. What is the strangest food you have ever eaten?

Follow-up question:

My notes:

4. Have you lived and/or worked in another country before?

Follow-up question:

My notes:

5. What country would you like to visit next?

Follow-up question:

My notes: